Investment Objective and Strategy

The fundamental investment objective of First Trust Indxx Innovative Transaction and Process ETF (the “First Trust ETF”) is to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of an innovative transaction and process index. Currently, the First Trust ETF seeks to replicate, to the extent possible, the performance of the Indxx Blockchain Index (the “Index”), provided by Indxx, LLC, net of expenses.

The investment strategy of the First Trust ETF is to obtain exposure to the Index by holding shares of a U.S.-listed index ETF, the First Trust Indxx Innovative Transaction & Process ETF (the “Underlying Fund”), which replicates or substantially replicates the performance of the Index by directly holding the Constituent Securities of the Index. The First Trust ETF may also hold cash and cash equivalents or other money market instruments to fund current liabilities. The Index seeks to track the performance of exchange-listed common shares (or corresponding ADRs or GDRs) of companies in various industries with their primary listing in developed or emerging market countries that are actively using, investing in, developing or have products that are poised to benefit from blockchain technology and/or the potential for increased efficiency that it provides to various business processes. The Index seeks to include only companies that have devoted material resources to the use of blockchain technologies. However, the Index may contain securities of issuers whose primary business operations are not blockchain related or do not include blockchain related activities.

Risk

The risks associated with an investment in the First Trust ETF remain as discussed in the First Trust ETF’s most recent prospectus. There have been no significant changes during the reporting period that affected the overall level of risk associated with the First Trust ETF.

Results of Operations

General

The First Trust ETF’s net asset value as of June 30, 2023 was $1,929,602 or $25.73 per unit. The First Trust ETF’s net asset value as of December 31, 2022 was $1,974,966 or $23.23 per unit.

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2023, the First Trust ETF paid total cash distributions of $0.3313. In addition, the First Trust ETF declared cash distributions per unit of $0.0500 for record date of June 30, 2023 with payment date of July 10, 2023.

Investment Performance

For the six-month period ended June 30, 2023, the First Trust ETF returned 11.17% compared to the S&P 500® Index (the “benchmark”) total return of 14.16%. Unlike the benchmark, the First Trust ETF’s return is net of fees and expenses.

The First Trust ETF’s only holding, the Underlying Fund, held 100 equity securities as of June 30, 2023. The top ten equity holdings for the Underlying Fund accounted for 16.18% of the portfolio within the Underlying Fund.

The Underlying Fund underperformed the benchmark during the period primarily due to an overweight allocation to Financials. Stock selection within Information Technology also contributed to the underperformance, particularly due to underweight positions in mega-cap securities that rallied during the period. The underperformance was mitigated by an underweight position in the Health Care sector.

The Underlying Fund’s top five stocks by contribution to return were NVIDIA Corporation, Advanced Micro Devices, Inc., Salesforce, Inc., Amazon.com, Inc. and Oracle Corporation. The bottom five stocks by contribution to return were JD.com, Inc., MetLife, Inc., China Merchants Bank Co., Ltd., AT&T Inc., and First Abu Dhabi Bank P.J.S.C.

The First Trust’s ETF’s exposure to the U.S. dollar contributed negatively to its absolute performance during the period as the U.S. dollar depreciated 2.22% against the Canadian dollar from December 31, 2022, to June 30, 2023.

Recent Developments

Since early 2018, the First Trust ETF has given investors exposure to companies involved in the blockchain ecosystem, primarily in the Financials and Information Technology sectors. 2022 saw a continuation of the stair-stepping downtrend in cryptocurrency prices that began in the fourth quarter of 2021. The so called "Crypto Winter" came with a wipeout of over $2T of cryptocurrencies as several stablecoins such as TerraUSD imploded and vulnerable DeFi firms such as Celsius faced bankruptcy. November 2022's collapse of FTX served to further the speculative attitude toward the blockchain ecosystem. Cryptocurrencies are typically treated as risky assets and tend to experience deep selloffs along with high-multiple growth stocks. Non-fungible tokens (NFTs) lost popularity as well. Their trade volumes in December 2022 – while up for the first time in eight months – were reported to be down about 80% from December 2021 as many enthusiasts abandoned digital collectibles. Although retail interest in cryptocurrency and NFTs has waned, enterprises continue to see potential for distributed ledger technology including use cases in smart contracts, digital personal identity, supply chain logistics, and settlement infrastructure. The first half of 2023 has seen the discussion regarding more speculative assets take the back seat amid a narrow market and recessionary fears, yet the flagship cryptocurrency, Bitcoin, has seen an ~83% gain in its value, illustrating its still-speculative nature. In the event of a recession and crypto winter that eliminates both cryptocurrency-related companies and use cases that are seen to be the least proven to add value, it is likely that only the best-capitalized, most resilient business models that adopt essential blockchain applications will emerge on the other side.

Non-cash distributions are reinvested in additional units of the First Trust ETF and subsequently consolidated. Portfolio turnover rate ⁽³⁾	0.58%	0.32%	0.23%	0.62%	0.42%	0.25%

(1) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period/year, including the First Trust ETF's proportionate share of the MER of the Underlying Fund in which the First Trust ETF has invested, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period/year.

(2) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period/year. This includes the First Trust ETF's proportionate share of the commissions of Underlying Fund in which the First Trust ETF has invested.

(3) The First Trust ETF's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the First Trust ETF's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the First Trust ETF buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period/year. The higher a First Trust ETF's portfolio turnover rate in a period/year, the greater the trading cost payable by the First Trust ETF in the period/year, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period/year. There is not necessarily a relationship between high turnover rate and the performance of a First Trust ETF.
